

Old Brymorians Association

The Old Brymorian Association held their Annual Dinner at Brymore School when over 100 Old Boys and their guests enjoyed Christmas Fare.

The evening began with a Sherry Reception hosted by the Old Boys Association Committee, John Manning, the Chairman welcomed the Old Boys and their partners, the Speakers and Past Teachers, Colin Munro, Nick Whitley, Philip Walker, Afona Johnson and retired Matron, Jane Hill.

Neil Parish, an Old Boy of the school, the conservative Member of the European Parliament for the South West and Chairman of the Agriculture and Rural Development Committee was the Guest of Honour. He proposed a toast to the School with great affection and humour.

Mr Brian Edmunds, the Assistant Headmaster replied. He spoke with great enthusiasm regarding the developments at the School with a new Boarding House and new Classrooms. He also highlighted the achievements of the boys and of the School over the past year.

Other Guests included Mr Alan Hemming, the Deputy Headmaster from 1952-82, who proposed the toast to the Old Boys Association with recollections of his 30 years at Brymore.

The Vice Chairman, Peter Harris, replied on behalf of the O.B.A. and in doing so highlighted the strong bond between the School and the Association. He also indicated that a 3year bursary would be available in 2008. Peter reminded those present that the School Open Day each year in June is a great reunion occasion.

Any Old Boys who have lost contact with the School and would like information regarding the O.B.A. should ring Gina Bryant at Brymore on 01278 652369 or visit their website –
